

Bengaluru - 23 December 2018 - Bengaluru Vishva Hindu Parishad began celebrating Bhagavadgita parayana program on Gita Jayanti day 25 years ago. About 50 karyakarthis chanted all the 700 shlokas of Gita in the chorus. As years passed, the program continued with more numbers and vigour. As numbers increased the program was shifted to Visha Shanti Ashrama in Nelamangala. A couple of years later it was further shifted to Shankar Mutt in Shankarpuram wherein thousands participated and chanted Bhagavadgita. With this yearly program, VHP organization has grown manifold. Gita Satsang started in different parts of Bengaluru. The beauty of the program is that people from walks of life irrespective of their caste, creed, and language come together and participate. For the last 4 years Gita Jayanti is being celebrated at Sri Rama Ayodhya ground Kacharakanahalli, Bengaluru.

26th year of Srimad Bhagavadgita Parayana Yagna was celebrated by Vishva Hindu Parishad Bengaluru Vibhag on the occasion of Gita Jayanti in Bengaluru on 23rd December 2018 at Dakshina Ayodhya Sri Rama Mandir Grounds, Kacharakanahalli, Bengaluru. Gita Jayanti is the day. Sri M. Bhagavatharajulu, the state Kurushetra war. Over 8000 sadhanas participated in this program. 30 sadhu-sanths graced the occasion. About 200 children came dressed as Lord Sri Krishna and Radha. 700 Shlokas of Bhagavadgita was recited in chorus. There were 18 arathis and 18 bhajans. A highlight of the program was that Kutti - worker at crematorium, Satish Kumar - postmortem worker, Anand - Sanitary worker were felicitated in front of all the Gita sadhaks. Devotees who participated also took an oath to strengthen Hindu Dharma and to stop conversion to other Semitic religions.

Sri Keshav Hegde - organizing secretary, South India VHP; Sri TAP Shenoy - vice president, Karnataka South, VHP; Smt. Kusuma - vice president, Karnataka South, VHP; Sri Jagannatha

Shastri - Secretary, Karnataka South, VHP; Smt. Rama Rathna - Mathru Shakthi pramukh participated in the program. Sri P C Mohan - Member of Parliament, Bengaluru Central, Dharmik and Social leader Sri M. N. Reddy and Sri M. C. Srinivas attended the Parayana Yagna. Maha Prasadam was served for all the devotees after the program.

B E Suresha
Joint Secretary, Karnataka South VHP

.....

