

VHP lauds Hazare's anti-corruption agitation : PTI

New Delhi, Apr 9 (PTI) Lauding anti-corruption crusader Anna Hazare's efforts, VHP today said his fast unto death had compelled the government to constitute a Joint Committee of ministers and civil society activists to draft an effective Lokpal Bill.

"We laud Hazare's effort to fight corruption. it has made the government reconsider the Lokpal Bill. This is also the victory of our countrymen's determination", senior VHP leader Surendra Jain said here.

He was speaking at a workshop on 'challenges in samvatsar 2068', wherein, he spoke about issues like the Ram Temple construction, corruption and terrorism.

Concerning the key goals before the organisation in samvatsar 2068, observed as the beginning of the Hindu New Year (Navsamvotsav), the VHP central secretary said that activists should work towards building the Ram Temple at Ayodhya.

"Now that the way is almost clear to build the temple, all activists must work towards its construction.
